Affiliation Adds to Firm's Depth in Defense, Health Care and International Relations

For Immediate Release

February 8, 2005

Washington, DC – The Livingston Group, LLC (TLG) continued its recent expansion with the affiliation of Tripp Funderburk, former congressional aide to TLG Founder and President Bob Livingston. Funderburk moves from his present position as a Senior Vice President for The Washington Group. At TLG, Mr. Funderburk will provide strategic advice and lobbying within the firm's Practice Areas of Defense Technologies/Homeland Security, Health Care and Pharmaceuticals, and International Relations/Business Development.

“Tripp Funderburk was a bulwark of our old Congressional office,” said Bob Livingston. “It’s great to be working with him once again.”

While working on Capitol Hill, Mr. Funderburk served as Representative Livingston’s lead staffer on the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and on the House Administration Subcommittee on Elections. He assisted Ranking Member Livingston in coordinating the House Republican position on campaign finance reform, voter registration, and appropriations for international programs. When Representative Livingston was named Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee in 1994, Mr. Funderburk moved to the Appropriations Committee and served as special assistant to the Chairman.

“I am really glad to be back working with many former colleagues and with former Appropriations Chairman Livingston. Bob gave me my start on the Hill and it is exciting to rejoin him and many of my old friends, and to have a chance to contribute to The Livingston Group’s continued growth and success.”

Mr. Funderburk has degrees from the University of Virginia (BA in 1987) and Duke University (MBA in 1996).

The Livingston Group, L.L.C. (TLG) was created in March, 1999 and provides comprehensive public affairs, government relations and lobbying services on a global basis.
